DETAILED ACTION

This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

Specification

The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because "comprises" should be avoided in the abstract. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Objections

Claims 10-12 and 15 are objected to because of the following informalities:

As to claim 10, line 2, "the indication" lacks antecedent basis.

As to claim 15, line 12, "the second I/O port" lacks antecedent basis. In addition, "the second I/O port" is unclear because there is no first I/O port. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-15 are allowed over the prior art of record.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Chen et al., Murray et al., Yung, Shih, Bobbitt, and Burri disclose art in detecting faulty or testing I/O ports. Yang discloses a printer sharing device.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
